

2025 57th Open House / Vintage Show

LouAnn, Amy, and Nathan at the registration table. Nate was taking a break from selling 50/50 tickets.

Sue was everywhere overseeing things.

Judy, Chavon, and Linda selling Club gear.

Arlene, Cheril, and Jeannie dished the hot dogs.

Russ worked the money table inside. Carl stopped by.

Claudia and LouAnn prepared 50/50 tickets.

Doug and Louise got the coffee going.

Chavon and Linda clowning around..

Sue and Louise kept the coffee and cocoa flowing.

Amy, Tracey, and Corey Swanson's daughter Rachel at the registration table. Tracey was a hot dog runner.

The hot dog table all set up.

Walt spread salt on some icy spots.

Wendy and Walt sold LOTS of raffle tickets.

Don had to clear a lot of snow.

Bryan and John check out the seating in the barn.

As the show wound down, Russ and Don discussed grooming while Skip just crashed.

Randy and Jane Short get ready to go outside. Al and Lou in conversation.

The National Anthem was sung by Ashley and Sophia Vogt.

Doug was in charge of everything.

The Vintage Fashion Show was won by the two kids in Arctic Cat gear.

Bryan took a look at the visitors eating and warming up.

Jeff won the 50/50.

Firepit crew was busy cooking hot dogs.

Jim Kelts was given an Outstanding Member award, with his family in attendance.

Doug talked with Kathy Collins, the long time friend and partner of Grange Bell who passed away in the past year.

The hot dog crew grilled 800 hot dogs.

The Kettle Corn truck was busy.

Skip sold raffle tickets, stocking hats, maps, and Memberships outside the clubhouse.

Pat, Doug, Dave, Tom on prep day.

Drone shots early in the day. Much more crowded later on.

The big snow pile by the driveway was very popular with the kids.

Dan White led the Vintage ride.

New member Alysa Short took some great photos of the sleds at the show.

Several COs were interested in this sled.

Some "Littles" at the show.

Johnny Solgot brought this cool sled.

Dave Schark's 1970 Puma 793. Less than 10 made, Originally owned by his uncle,

Over 100 vintage sleds paraded around the lot, then took off on a ride.

What a great show and ride put on by the Ogemaw-Hills Snowmobile-Club . Think there was something like 275 sleds at the show. Probably half of them went on the ride. Our granddaughter Blair and her daddy Nick Teed went on the ride with us. - Mark Kopfman with Nick Teed and LaLinnie Sapp Kopfman

Perfect day for trail riding. First Julia Bomba and I checked out the vintage snowmobile show at Ogemaw-Hills Snowmobile-Club. Then a stop for lunch at Ma Deeters before heading home.

Jeff Schenk loaded up Thursday to go to the Ogemaw-Hills Snowmobile-Club show and ride today. James texted me that evening and said he could go snowmobiling Saturday if I wasn't busy. Change of plans, James and I had a blast today !

Julia checks out some cats. RHTC member Jeff Persondek was checking them out too.

Elysia Marie Carrol posted this on Facebook: It's been 5 years since my Dad's memorial ride (Craig Carroll). It was such an amazing day honoring my daddy and the other members who passed. This was the first annual memorial ride, so it was a very very special day. The club has always been close to our hearts!

The large snow pile near the driveway attracted kids all day.