

1ST ANNUAL OHSC GOLF OUTING
WEST BRANCH COUNTRY CLUB
MAY 31, 2025

Chavon talked to the golfers before the shot gun start. She explained all the different golf games and rules.

I Want Some Kettle Corn donated bags for all the golfers.

We were welcomed by the Sandbagger workers

There were certain rules for the silent auction.

Chavon supervises Kristin, Charlie, and Chad Combs as they check out the prizes for the putting game.

Kim Fair organized the silent auction donations, wrapping them around the room.

Kristin checked out the silent auction donations.

Kim Fair sold mulligans to golfers at the registration table.

Registration went smoothly. Karen Peterson handled the sign ins and Kim sold mulligans.

Sherry and Dave Viaene sold Yeti raffle tickets to Russ.

Nathan and Amy Loomis ran the putting game. Hit an object to win it. Sink the looong put and win a big prize.

Sponsor signs lined each hole.

A Razor from Renze Sport Center, a Buick from Hart GMC, and a pontoon from Secord Lake Marina were waiting to be won for someone making a hole in one on three different par 3s. No one did.

Doug set up outside to sell raffle tickets.

Don Perry, Russ Kleinhans, Chavon and Karen Peterson.

Jerry Fair, Chris Nihls, and Chad Combs sat back and observed things.

These guys wanted to be distinctive. Cavemen?

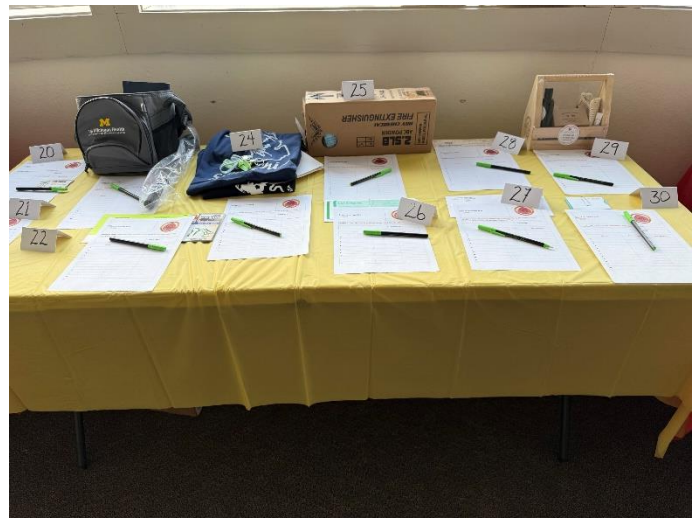

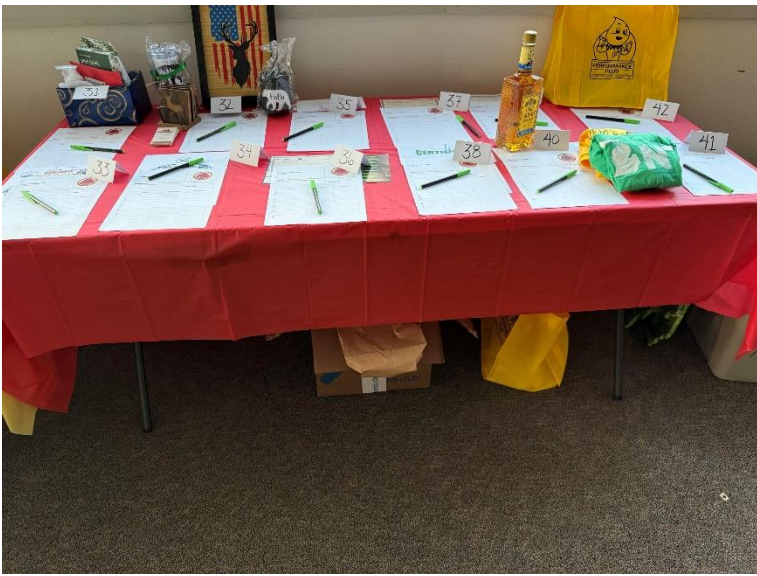

There were quite a few lady golfers.

Don Klingler was one of the golfers.

Jeremy Pelts and Don Perry .

The silent auction items ranged from bottles of liquor, gift certificates, a grill and embroidered hats. And the NASCAR package.

Terry and Sharon Black getting ready to man a hole.

Chavon had to make more goodie bags since we had so many golfers.

Golfers got a grilled steak with potatoes and beans in the Sandbagger.

Chavon announced the winners.
(This was the ONLY thing that wasn't A-One: no microphone.)

The winning team will get their names engraved on this plaque.

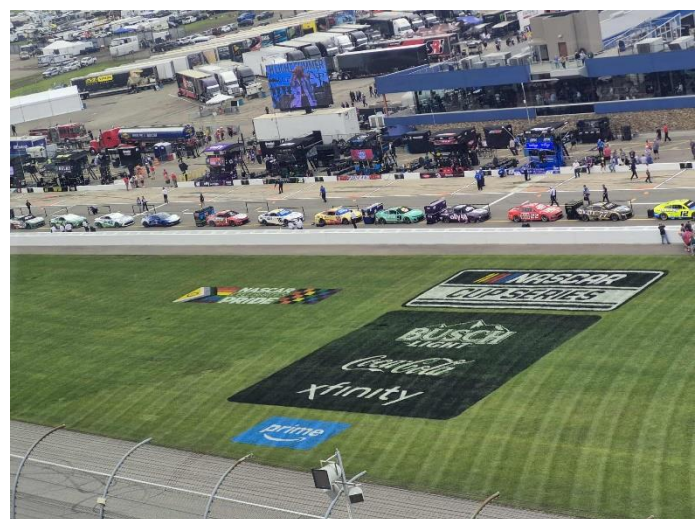

John Hurry and Jeannie Rockwell dug in to dinner. Dinner for the volunteers was covered from the Outing proceeds.

Joanne LaBlanc, Russ Kleinhans, and LuAnn Hurry also enjoyed the meal.

NASCAR RACE PACKAGE AT MIS

Lyle Curry and his brother purchased the NASCAR Race Package in the Silent Auction. It was gift for their parents, Lyle and Cathie Curry. The package for the June 8 race included 2 suite tickets, 2 garage and pit passes, Garage tour, Driver meet and greet. And they got to see an exciting race. What a gift from two awesome sons.

Tim Leslie with some friends.

Russ, Tim, and John

Earlier in the week, Greg, Don, and Chris brought back the Razer after meeting someone from Renze Power Sports at the Mackinaw Bridge
